THE TERRIBLE DROUGHT-POLITICAL-THE COALITION NOMINATIONS—SOME PERTINENT SUGGESTIONS—WHAT IS WANTED—A SE-CRET—THE CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO AND THE ALLEGRANY LINES—SHEEP-RAISING—BEAR-HUNT.

[Staff correspondence of the Dispatch.]

August 13, 1883.

It is sad to see the devastation by the drought. It is not as "bad as it can be," but bad enough, and will be worse unless rain soon comes, of which the clouds now gathering give some promise. There are now that have no signs of streams flowing along their rocky beds. There are grass-fields that only need the touch of flame to set them afire. Some in-deed have already been burned by sparks from the railroad engines. In many spots the corn is wilted; the stalk looks like a man prematurely aged; the blade has fallen like a paralyzed arm. The roads are dust-bed-kept near Saltville.

POLITICAL.

The Coxbition Republicans of this county have nominated Mr. John E. Hamilton and Captain Fulcher for the House. From what I hear it is as strong a ticket as they could have put forth, and yet stands about as much chance of election as would the best ticket that their party could nominate in Richmond city. Mr. Hamilton is a bro-ther-in-law of Auditor Allen, and is the special collector appointed to levy upon railroad property in the coupon and other controversies. Captain Fulcher was once a resident of Richmond, and I believe un-dertook to learn the printing business in a newspaper office. I do not know whether he graduated as a typo, but he is now a

The Democrats are going to nominate their members of the House by primary election. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] "The Readjusters, Independent Democrats, Liberals, and all voters opposed to Bourbonism, Ring-Rule, and Domination," so styled in the eard of Secretary Wilson, met in the Town Hall this morning for the purpose of organizing this mongrel party and preparing for the fall campaign.

Postmaster Wilson resigned his office as secretary, and was promoted without or-

It was unanimously agreed to appoint, as heretofore, a committee of fifteen members-two fifths colored. It is the joy of the negro's heart to mix with the whites, and no one knows this better than the white Mahonete. Mr. Spiller knew he touched his 'colored friends' in a tender point when Fowler dwelt at length upon the color ine and the Richmond School Board (here he charmed Africa); discoursed learnedly on the tariff, and raved over the public debt. He said that if the Demo-crats succeed, not another dollar would be funded under the Riddleberger bill.

Judge W. F. Rhea is a young man of good address, and made a fine impression upon our people. He reviewed Mahone's reachery to the Readjusters and his corrupt legislation; commented with clearness and force upon the Democratic platform; declared that the agitation of the debt questhat the Democrats were pledged to let it rest; showed that the colored people demanded mixed schools by reading from a resolution of the Colored Press Association, and that Makone were Press Association and that Makone were Press Association. ion now came from the Mahoneites alone. tion, and that Mahone would be forced in end of the first haif mile the crews What is wanted is nominees with qualifi-time to promise and grant this in order to retain his colored troops; asserted that retain his retain his colored troops; asserted that retain his retain his retain his retain his retain his retain his Upon them the burden of the fight will Fowler, while he himself was a Readjuster, fall, and they ought to be men able to stand had boasted of his Democracy, and now

The arrest of three English ladies of po-sition on suspicion of stealing a ring at the hotel at Kissengen has fluttered the Gerthe brush and was lost in the darkness, and they had no dog to put upon the track. The story was told at the Springs Sunday morning. That afternoon a party went out walking, and it was a very pretty little lady who, dropping behind her companions, got scared and imagined that she saw a bear close at hand. She climbed a small tree, and there remained till the party returned to ber, and then it was found that the "frightful thing" was a charred stump.

The tory was told at the Springs Sunday man watering-places. On being released they were accompanied by two Bavarian pollcemen to the hotel, where they found their traducer, an Irish lady, seated at the table d'hote. She denied having accused them, but several of the guests protested the opposite. She had openly charged them with entering her bed-room at night and abstracting the ring. Thus confronted, she made an abject apology, and handed to the police a good sum for charitable purposes.

Fight Intereting Contests-Some Beautiful Rowing-The Richmonds Secure the Secand Place in the Four-Oared Gig-Race.

[By telegraph to the Dispatch.] Washington, Angust 14.—The weather was cloudy and calm, and the water smooth. The first race—for double sculls, with two entries from the Columbia Club, of Washington-was won by Zeigler and Kintner in 10:42; Lake and Williams-

In the race for junior single sculls the entries were W. E. Cody, Metropolitan Club, of New York; Richard Sommers, of the Analostan Club, of Washington; and Stephen Kearney, of the Potomae Club, of Washington. This race was exciting throughout. Kearney went off first with a rapid strake. Cody second, and Sommers. rapid stroke, Cody second, and Sommers close up. At the end of the first half mile Cody was rowing 34 strokes and Kearney 37. At this point Cody appeared to have a slight advantage, owing to Kearney's erratic steering; but the latter soon straightened out sourced strongly and repeatedly ened out, spurted strongly and repeatedly, and passing Cody with ease. At the end of the mile he soon increased his lead to ten lengths. Sommers was far in the rear.

Time-Kearney, 10:40; Cody. 11:10. The third race was between two fours-crews from the Columbia Club, and was won in 10:35 by the crew composed of Bal-lantyne, Kerr, Fiedew, and Oliver. The next event was the contest between the eight-oared shell crews of the Metro-politan Club, of New York, and the Co-lumbia Club, of Washington. Much in-terest attached to this race; besides, the same crews had met at Newark with rather unsatisfactory results. Although the Co-lumbias followed with a stroke of fifty to the minute, the superior rowing of the New York men showed to advantage, and with a stroke of forty they soon began to forge slowly ahead. The race for the lead in the first half mile was lead three quarters of a length, still row-ing at 40, both crews rowing like clock-work, and giving a grand exhibition of oarsmanship. At the end of a mile the Columbias made a desperate effort to catch up, but succeeded only in reducing the distance between themselves and their leaders to a seant length at the finish. Time Metropolitans, 8:25\(\frac{1}{2}\); Columbias, 8:29\(\frac{1}{2}\).

The next race was for single sculls, open only to the District scullers, and was won with ease by Fisher, of the Potomac Club, in 11:15; Sommers, of the Analostian Club, cond, and Lake, of the Columbia Club, third.

The four-oared gig race proved to be highly interesting. The entries were: Pennsylvanias, of Philadelphia: Cockade sylvania crew was two lengths astray but at this point the last-named crev fell into a splendid form, and rowling but 36, while the others rowed 44 and 48 came up rapidly and took the lead, which they held to the finish, winning in 9:42. race for the second place was very close for over a mile, but the Richmonds spurted and came in two lengths ahead of PARIS, August 14.—At a meeting of the Anarchists held to-day at Lille, over which Henri Rochefort presided, cheers were given for 'the Spanish republic.''

A Madrid dispatch says: The Marquis De La Vega Armijo, when returning to the Capitol, traversed Portugal, and learned the full details of the plot of the revolutionary fraternity, which comprised all grades between the ranks of sergeant and lieutenant colonels inclusive, divided into circles, ten persons only knowing the centres of organization. If the movement had been successful each officer was to receive two steps in promotion. Officers who retired at the restoration of the movement. The military, it thus appears, lent themselves to Zorilla's arms for purely selfish motives.

Loxbon, August 14.—The proclamation issued by the rebel leader to the inhabitants of Seo de Urgel on the occasion of the hair rising at that place is published. It declares that those persons who oppose the republic will be punished with death, and decrees the separation of Church and State, permission of liberty of conscience, the suppression of the actroi, and the abolition of courts of justice in fayor of a revolutionary municipality which will administer justice in accordance with the Constitution of 1899.

SAVED FROM A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Up to May last I had spent at least five hundred dollars for treatment by many of the best medical men without any benefit. I suffered exeruciating ly, and all my best friends advised me that the ley hand of death was fast approaching. I caught at S. S. S. like a drowning man at a straw. After taking two bottles I could feel a change for the better. The sores began to discharge freely and the rheumatism to abate. When I had taken six bottles every sore had healed, and my skin began to assume a natural appearance. I persk ted multi-lad taken lawelye bottles, large size, and THERE IS NOT A SYMPTOM OF THE DISEASE REMAINING, and I feel as well as I ever did. I have gamed twenty-one pounds in flesh, and my friends wonder at my improved condition. I have recommended it to many, and in every instance with complete success. I believe that S. S. S. has saved me from a horrible death.
